PARIS TOUR EIFFEL

PARIS, CITY OF LIGHT

The hotel's location is unparalleled. It's just a stone's throw from the Eiffel Tower, between the romance of the Seine and the cultural effervescence of the Left Bank. You'll find Paris's most beautiful monuments, emblematic museums, artistic districts, and the boutiques of Avenue Montaigne just a few minutes away. Whether you're discovering the capital for the first time or returning with a passion, the Pullman Paris Tour Eiffel is your privileged gateway.

Here, every stay becomes an immersion in an authentic, elegant and vibrant Paris, where luxury is discreet, the welcome warm and the attention personalised. Far from clichés, this address is a chic, cosmopolitan and resolutely Parisian landmark.

GUEST RELATIONS

At Pullman Paris Tour Eiffel, Guest Relations play a central role in the customer experience. True ambassadors for the hotel, they ensure a warm, personalised welcome from the moment guests arrive, anticipating their needs and exceeding their expectations throughout their stay.

Their mission goes far beyond traditional assistance: they orchestrate made-to-measure attention, manage special requests, and intervene quickly in the event of unforeseen circumstances to guarantee total satisfaction. Thanks to their in-depth knowledge of Paris and its highlights, they can also advise guests on the best local addresses and experiences.

This top-of-the-range service reflects the elegance and high standards of the Pullman Paris Tour Eiffel, positioning the hotel as a veritable showcase of comfort and hospitality at the foot of the Iron Lady.

PULLMAN PORTERS

Pullman Porters embody service excellence at Pullman Paris Tour Eiffel.

These professionals are true masters of the on-the-go welcome, offering assistance with luggage as well as orchestrating a memorable first impression with a perfect balance of courtesy, efficiency and refinement.

Passengers are welcomed by staff who are attentive and reassuring, creating a sense of occasion from the outset. They are always impeccable and always available, and they accompany each guest with classy discretion, making every arrival a grand entrance.

A woman with dark hair wrapped in a white towel, wearing a white bathrobe, is sitting up in a bed with white linens. She is looking off to the side with a thoughtful expression, resting her chin on her hand. She is holding a large, shiny, red heart-shaped balloon that is partially visible in the upper right corner of the frame. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

CHIEF ALEXANDRE WILLAUME

FRAME BRASSERIE

CHIEF ALEXANDRE WILLAUME

“My cooking has changed, become more plant-based, more conscious and much more committed.”

Alexandre Willaume began his culinary career at the age of 20 in Troyes, at the restaurant Le Chanoine Gourmand.

Following this, he joined Didier Oudill at the Cafe de Paris in Biarritz, where he was quickly promoted to Chef de Partie. He then refined his skills in prestigious establishments such as Le Guanahani in Saint-Barthélemy, La Résidence de la Pinède and Château de la Messardière in Saint-Tropez, and in London, where he held the position of Sous-Chef to the French Ambassador.

His talent has also led him to perform at prestigious venues such as the French National Assembly, the Plaza Athénée and the Bristol. Building on this experience, he was appointed Assistant Chef at the Hôtel du Louvre, followed by Executive Chef at Pullman Roissy. In 2021, he assumed the role of Executive Chef at the Grand Hôtel Thalasso & Spa in Saint-Jean-de-Luz, where he was awarded the title of Maître Restaurateur, following a year in the same position at the Sofitel Scribe.

Chef Alexandre Willaume has been a vegetarian for several years and his cuisine is mainly based on marine and plant products, although he still works with certain meats, always with the utmost respect for the animal. His culinary approach, which celebrates local and seasonal produce, aims to offer a subtle dining experience that respects the terroir.
